Module Variations

Written by Administrator
Monday, 19 April 2010 05:48 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 June 2010 19:06

Below this article you can see basic suffixes used in this template (at positions bottom1-bottom3). Please remember about using space at beginning of suffix name in module options.

Suffix clear is used usually in header positions for Image Show module.

Please remember that if you have a module News Show Pro then you have to set suffix nsp for that module - this suffix adds relative positioning to main module container which is necessary for correct module interface positioning.

{jcomments off}